

Ground Rules

- All members of the team will try their very best to do their assigned work
- Work will be assigned in a democratic fashion 50/50
- If a disagreement arises, matters will be settled with a flip of the coin
- All issues personal or work must be talked about in person and first talked about in person
- Meetings will be decided through Snapchat or Instagram when the time comes
- Final submissions will be alternating

Shreyas Basu

- I function best when work is assigned clearly and deadlines are met.
- I really hope our group has fun and gets a good grade.

Salvador De La Torre

- Group assignments will be split up evenly
- Group work will be done in a timely manner
- Group members will be open minded to new/different ideas
- Disagreements will be settled in a good manner and in person
- Group members will put in their best effort on all of the assignments
- I function best when work is split up evenly and turned in on time
- I really hope that our group gets a good grade and has a smooth process with all assignments.